MicroCapital is the leading publisher of news and information on international microfinance. As an emerging global industry with a legacy of charity, microfinance suffers from a scarcity of objective, business-oriented news. To counter this scarcity, MicroCapital has been providing daily news on microfinance at http://MicroCapital.org since 2005. We have been publishing the monthly MicroCapital Monitor news digest since 2006. Please contact us if you would like to receive a complimentary sample issue by email.
ABOUT THE MicroCapital Monitor and MicroCapital.org

The monthly MicroCapital Monitor news digest is the leading publication in the microfinance sector, offering information in a format optimized for busy investors and microfinance institution managers. Each timely, comprehensive and easy-to-read issue includes condensed news briefs from around the world, summaries of just-published industry research, event listings, data from the Microfinance Information Exchange (MIX) and various special features.
